Alabama River Lakes and Locks

Taste from the black belt's kitchen of history

From American expansion westward in the 1700s to the expansion of rights for every American in the 1960s, Alabama's Black Belt region has been a place of change and resurrection.

More detailed information and maps of each of the three Alabama River Lakes may be found at links in the accompanying article.

Millers Ferry Campground

Millers Ferry Lock and Dam

Clifton Ferry Park Ferry & Park

Prattville Steeles Landing Park Swift Creek Park Autauga Creek Blueway Selma Montgomery Marina Marina RiverWalk Prairie Creek Gunter Hill Montgomery Campground Holy Ground Campground Old ? Park Cahawba Six Mile Robert F. Henry Lock and Dam Historical Park Park R. E. "Bob" Woodruff Lake Водие William Bill" Dannelly Reservoir Chitto Park Chilatchee Creek Gees Bend Cooper State Park Gees Bend Bridgeport Ferry & Park Ramp Camden

Thomasville 1

Lower Peachtree Park Bells Landing Park

Haines Island Park

Grove Hill

 Silver Creek Park Claiborne Lock Isaac Creek and Dam -Campground

Civil War. Civil rights. Civilized recreation.

Monroeville

Campground

Area of this map in relation to the state of Alabama

www.alabamascenicrivertrail.com

Wetumpka

Fort Toulouse / Fort Jackson

Historical Park